Fee amounts can be found from <http://www.rio.edu/student-services/page.php?ID=accounting>.

Payment Due

As a means of providing experience and emphasizing punctuality and responsibility in business affairs, the University of Rio Grande and Rio Grande Community College prefer to deal directly with the student rather than their parents. Accordingly, all bills will be addressed to the student.

The payment is due on one week before the first day of the class. Payment must be received on or before due day to avoid deregistration. Postmarks will not be reviewed.

If you are a participant of third party billing (e.g. BVR, CAA, TAA, VA, WIA, Jobs & Family Services or Workforce Development), it is your responsibility to provide documentation to the Accounting Office. You may fax appropriate documentation to the Accounting Office 740-245-7171 on or before the stated due day.

Payment Options

1. Check — mail your check for the Balance Due to the address below. Do not send cash. Please include your ID number on your check or money order.

2. ACH Payment (eCheck) — makes an electronic check payment by logging into your account at <https://hope.rio.edu/studentSPACE/PyByCheck.aspx>. Make sure you follow the instructions very carefully and carefully input your bank's routing number and your account number (checking or savings account).
3. Credit Card Online — make a credit card payment by logging into your account at <https://hope.rio.edu/studentSPACE/PyByCredit.aspx>. VISA, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express are accepted.
4. In Person at cashier window, Accounting Office and Community College Office, top floor Allen Hall, with cash, check or credit card.
5. Monthly Payment Plan — University of Rio Grande offers and manages a payment to enable students to set up an installment payment plan, at the beginning of each semester, if there is a balance due. An enrollment fee is charged for this option. For more information or to apply, please call 1-740-245-7232.
6. Financial Aid may be applied to your account if you have qualified for assistance. If financial aid is less than the Balance Due, you must pay the difference. If financial aid is greater than the Balance Due, you will receive a refund. If you are expecting financial aid and your account do not have an award listed, please contact the Financial Aid Office of at 740-245-7218 or <http://www.rio.edu/studentSERVICES/page.php?ID=financialaid>.

Returned Check Fees

Upon the receipt of a returned check (including eChecks), University of Rio Grande will send the student and/or check owner an email or a letter detailing the reason for return and amount due. Returned check payments must be made with cash, cashier's check, or money order. A personal check will not be accepted.

Returned checks will be charged a service fee. Tuition checks that are returned at payment deadline will also be charged a late payment fee.

A returned check halt may be placed on the student's records. The halt cannot be released until payment is made. This halt will affect registration, grades, transcripts, and diplomas from being processed.

Refunds

Tuition and Course Fees - A student will receive no refund as a result of any course dropped and/or withdraw after the first five business days of an academic semester, or the first two calendar days of a summer term or any 8 weeks classes.

Board - A student withdrawing during an academic semester or summer term for any reason will be refunded a part of the charges for board proportionate to the number of whole weeks of an academic semester or summer term remaining after termination.

Room and Other Fees - A student withdrawing during an academic semester or summer term will not receive a refund of charges for room, institutional fee, technology fee, parking fee, insurance or late registration fee, and other fees.

Advanced Deposit - Advanced deposits are non-refundable.

Important

It is your responsibility to drop or withdraw from courses you do not plan to attend. Your classes will NOT be automatically dropped for non-attendance. After the drop/add period you will be responsible for all tuition and fees, and add/drop fees. Not reviewing your bill does not eliminate your responsibility to pay.

Check your student account anytime by logging into:
<https://hope.rio.edu/studentspace/signup.aspx>

Student ID

When arriving at the Accounting Office, the student will be required to present a picture ID (e.g. student ID or driver's license). If the student does not have his/her picture ID service will be denied.

Residency Requirements

General Residency

The following persons shall be classified as residents of the State of Ohio for subsidy and tuition surcharge purposes:

1. A dependent student, at least one of whose parents or legal guardian has been a resident of the State of Ohio for all other legal purposes for twelve consecutive months or more immediately preceding the enrollment of such student in the University.
2. A person who has been a resident of Ohio for the purpose of this rule for at least twelve consecutive months immediately preceding his or her enrollment and who is not receiving, and has not directly or indirectly received in the preceding twelve consecutive months, financial support from persons or entities who are not residents of Ohio.

Exceptions

Exceptions to the general rule of residency for subsidy and tuition surcharge purposes:

1. A person who is living and is gainfully employed on a full-time or part-time and self-sustaining basis in Ohio and who is pursuing a part-time program of instruction in Rio Grande Community College shall be considered a resident of Ohio for these purposes.
2. A person who enters and currently remains upon active duty in the United States military service while a resident of Ohio for all other legal purposes and his or her dependents shall be considered residents of Ohio for these purposes as long as Ohio remains the state of such person's domicile.
3. A person on active duty status in the United States military service who is stationed and resides in Ohio and his/her dependents shall be considered residents of Ohio for these purposes.
4. A person, who is transferred by his employer beyond the territorial limits of the fifty states of the United States and the District of Columbia while a resident of Ohio for all other legal purposes, and his or her dependents shall be considered residents of Ohio for these purposes as long as Ohio remains the state of such person's domicile and as long as such person has fulfilled his or her tax liability to the State of Ohio for at least the tax year preceding enrollment.
5. A person, who has been employed as a migrant worker in the State of Ohio and his or her dependents shall be considered residents for these purposes provided such person has worked in Ohio for at least four months during each of the three years preceding the proposed enrollment.
6. Any student who is a qualifying resident of any county of a state in which Rio Grande Community College and the Ohio Board of Regents has entered into a legally binding reciprocity agreement.

Residency Change

1. Students should have a fair and adequate opportunity to present proof of their Ohio residency for purposes of this rule. The University of Rio Grande and Rio Grande Community College may require the submission of affidavits and other documentary evidence, which it may deem necessary to a full and complete determination under this rule.
2. Evidentiary determinations under this rule shall be made by the institution which may require, among other things, the submission of documentation regarding the source of a student's actual financial support. A Residency Change Application form is available in the Admissions Office.
3. Any reclassification of a person who was once classified as a non-resident for these purposes shall have prospective application only from the date of such reclassification. In order to qualify for in-district fees, a student must be a resident of Gallia, Jackson, Meigs, or Vinton County and meet the same general residency criteria as stated above to determine residency in the State of Ohio.
