The University of Rio Grande/Rio Grande Community College, in southeastern Ohio, announces an opening for a full-time, tenure track or non-tenure track teaching position (rank commensurate with qualifications) in the field of Clinical/Counseling Psychology to begin August 2016.

Candidates must be able to teach Counseling Skills & Theoretical Foundations, General Psychology, Personality, Behavior Modification, and Abnormal Psychology, as well as coordinate and supervise the practicum program. Rotational/semi-regular classes may also include Senior Capstone, Human Growth & Development, an off-campus class once every 3 to 4 semesters, and possibly additional courses in area of specialty. The ideal candidate will also contribute to the restructuring of the psychology program. Involving students in research and working with students on senior theses is an expected component of the position. Student advising and scholarship and/or service to the university is also required.

The University of Rio Grande is a small private university paired with a public community college. Full time faculty of the psychology department are considered universities employees, and psychology course materials are typically presented at the university level.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:
Applicants are welcome at the Instructor or Assistant Professor levels; PhD is preferred and is required by August 2016 at the Assistant Professor level, master’s required at the Instructor level.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS:
Applicants must send a cover letter detailing their interest and qualifications, updated CV, transcripts (unofficial accepted for application purposes), as well as three professional references to:

Mr. Chris Nourse
Director of Human Resources
Email: HR@rio.edu
Fax: 740.245.5266

Review of applications will begin immediately. For full consideration all application materials are required by February 5, 2016. Background check and official transcripts required prior to hire. For additional information about Rio, please visit: www.rio.edu

The University of Rio Grande/Rio Grande Community College is America's unique private/public institution of higher education designed to provide learners the opportunity to attain a high-quality, high-value education. Our personalized, learner-centered environment promotes successful lives, careers, and responsible citizenship. Rio is nestled in the rolling hills of the Appalachian Mountains, a primarily rural area. Larger metropolitan areas including Huntington & Charleston, WV, and Athens & Columbus, OH. Rio is an Equal Opportunity & Affirmative Action Employer. Females, minorities, and members of underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply.