COMPOSITION/ENGLISH ADJUNCT POOL – SCHOOL OF LIBERAL STUDIES

The School of Liberal Studies at the University of Rio Grande/Rio Grande Community College is seeking adjunct faculty for Composition I and Composition II classes taught both in Rio Grande and at the Meigs County and Vinton County locations. Courses are predominantly offered during the day, but we have many courses offered in the evening, making them a great opportunity for current secondary school teachers interested in teaching at the post-secondary level.

Qualified instructors will hold a Master’s Degree in Composition/Literature OR hold a Master’s Degree in another field and have a cohesive set of at least eighteen credits of graduate coursework relevant to Composition/Literature. College-level teaching experience is preferred but candidates with high school teaching experience will be considered.

Adjunct instructors are paid $500/credit hour and can teach up to nineteen credit hours in the fall/spring semesters. Adjuncts may also have the opportunity to teach during the summer.

Qualified instructors will be kept in the adjunct pool even if they do not receive a course load in Spring 2014.

Screening of applicants will begin immediately. Qualified applicants should send a cover letter, vita, and the names and contact information for two references to:
