

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

The University of Rio Grande/Rio Grande Community College offers several one-year Music Scholarships in varying amounts to musically talented students who demonstrate the potential for academic success. Under certain terms these scholarships may be renewed annually. Other private donor scholarships are also available.

- 1. The applicant should return a completed Music Scholarship Application form to the address below.
- 2. The applicant must submit, in his/her own words, a typed letter of introduction stating in a concise manner, reasons why you feel qualified to receive a music scholarship, and what it would mean to you.
- 3. The applicant must also submit two letters of recommendation. The first must be from a music instructor attesting to the applicant's current musical ability and potential. The second, usually from the high school counselor or principal, must attest to the applicant's potential for academic success. These recommendation letters will be used in conjunction with the applicant's cumulative grade point average (GPA- recommended minimum of 2.5), ACT composite score (recommended minimum of 18), and class rank.

AUDITION PROCEDURE AND REQUIREMENTS:

The applicant must compete for the scholarship through an on-campus audition with the appropriate music faculty (repertoire requirements listed below). Auditions may be scheduled by contacting:
